

Linda Curtis

ROSA ACICULARIS
ALBERTA'S FLORAL EMBLEM

STAMPEDE LUNCHEON

CANADIAN WOMEN'S PRESS
CLUB—CALGARY BRANCH

July 8th, 1952
12:00 p.m.

East Room

Palliser Hotel

'Sprise Package

A puncher never really knows until he climbs aboard
Just what a red-eyed outlaw horse may do,
And that's the situation when the Calgary writin' gals
Set out to entertain some friends like all of you.

There's no official program for our annual Stampede Lunch
Tho it's not because the program squad's been nappin'.
That's just the way things always are at Stampede time out west
No one ever knows for sure what's gonna happen.

So just relax—let down your hair, and join in all the kidding
And if things don't turn out as you expect
Remember that's the way it is at Stampede time out west
You're never sure what's gonna happen next.

M E N U

♦ ♦ ♦

Local

CELERY

RADISHES

OLIVES

SOUP

CHICKEN PATTIE

SHOESTRING POTATOES

FRESH FROZEN GREEN PEAS

ROLLS

BUTTER

PEACH MELBA

ASSORTED CAKES

COFFEE

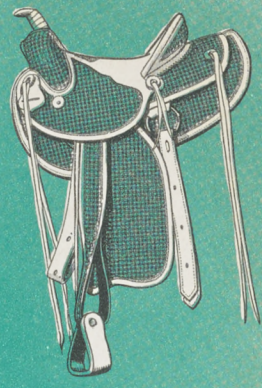

PRESENTATION OF AWARDS

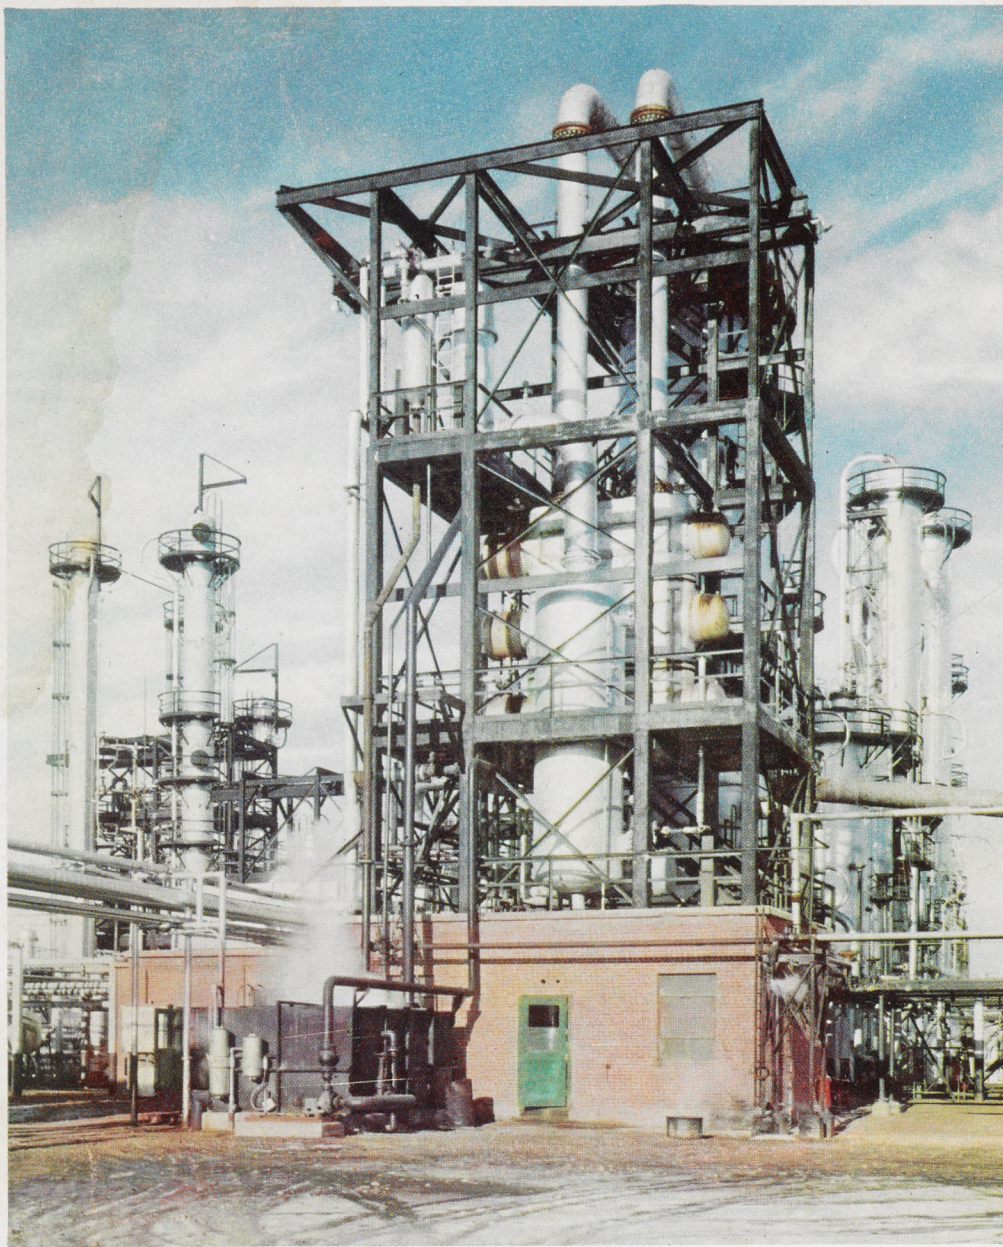

The Albertan Award for news writing and the CFAC Award for radio writing will be presented to the winners of the contest held recently for members of the Calgary Branch of the Canadian Women's Press Club. In addition to the awards, which were donated by the Albertan and Radio Station CFAC, there will be two 'honorable mentions' for each class of writing. Judges were W. H. Bell of the Redwater News Herald and N. H. McAfee of Radio Station CJCA, Edmonton.

COME AGAIN

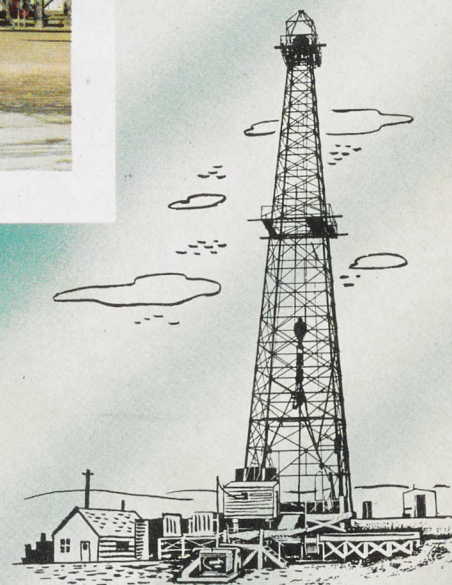

It's been a lot of fun to have
You as our guests to-day
And so before you leave us
There's this we'd like to say—
If you've enjoyed yourselves to-day
Please join us once again
At next year's Stampede Luncheon.
O.K.? We'll see you then.

The friendly hospitality of the West has been extended to you during your visit to Alberta. We hope you have enjoyed your stay and may return soon to renew happy acquaintances. We would like you to share again with us the magnificent grandeur of our mountains, lakes and forests, the beauties of our prairies and parklands, and the friendliness of our cities, towns and villages.

We ask you to tell your friends about Alberta and to assure them that this Province of Opportunity awaits them with a western welcome — warm and true.

EDMONTON: Printed by A. Shnitka, Queen's Printer for Alberta.